American Heritage Named Best-In-State by Forbes for the 2nd Consecutive Year

Forbes 2019

BEST-IN-STATE CREDIT UNIONS

Powered by STATISTA

American Heritage Credit Union was named as one of the Best-In-State credit unions in Pennsylvania in a recent study by Forbes and the market research firm Statista. This is the second year in a row that American Heritage was recognized with this prestigious accolade.

Forbes' America's Best-In-State Banks and Credit Unions publication was chosen based on an independent survey from a vast sample of more than 25,000 U.S. citizens spread among all states. In total, 182 unique credit unions were awarded as the Best-In-State Credit Unions 2019. Thank you for choosing American Heritage!

Have You Met PAT®?

During a recent branch visit, you may have been asked to try the PAT® (Personal Automated Teller) machine, a device that resembles an ATM but has a live Teller connected to it. Whether you decided to try it or not, you may have lingering questions about the machines and wonder why we've added them into our branches.

What is PAT® able to do?

Because a PAT® machine is able to function both as an ATM and as a standard teller, it is capable of performing a variety of tasks. You can use a PAT® machine for cash or check deposits and withdrawals, transfers, loan payments, and account reviews. And, for cash withdrawals, you can even specify the denomination of bills you'd like to receive. Consumers and business owners alike tell us how helpful this is!

Does PAT offer private transactions?

We want you to feel secure while you're performing your transaction, so we have taken several steps to defend your information and enhance your privacy. If you feel comfortable making a transaction at a teller line, PAT has many of the same security features, and more! The audio and visual information displayed are designed to be accessible to the current user only and identification is required for certain transactions. PAT machine technology has been evolving at American Heritage for over a decade and we always have your privacy in mind.

Learn more...

Please read more about our PAT® machine (and the friendly faces you'll meet using it) in our article "More Than A Machine: Meet PAT®." Continue reading on our website at AmericanHeritageCU.org/PAT. We hope to see you using PAT® in one of our branches soon!
