BECOME AN EXPERT IN SPOTTING A SPOOFING SCAM

Now more than ever, it's crucial to safeguard yourself against spoofing scams. Spoofing refers to when a scammer tries to trick you into providing personal information and account details through a convincing phone call or website. Even though the phone number may appear to be local, if the caller asks you to provide them with a code, your PIN, or any other personal or account details, it's a scam. For websites, look for the lock symbol in the upper left corner of the URL bar, which means the site is secure.

Remember, American Heritage will NEVER contact you asking for account details. If you suspect you've been scammed, please contact us immediately at 215.969.0777.
